- a. Vandalism – Discussion took place around the recent vandalism on the park and the methods of reporting. It was agreed that the procedure moving forward is to report incidents of vandalism to the police through 101 and also to empower the public to do the same. Once a crime number is received it is requested that this is passed to the clerk and kept as a record along with a brief outline of the incident. All councillors are to be informed of the incident as soon as possible. Where the perpetrator is confirmed, financial redress will be sought for any damage caused or expense incurred.
 - Vexatious communications – A discussion took place around the vexatious communications. An appropriate course of action was agreed.
- b. Internal Communications and Engagement –
 - A discussion took place around the appropriate use of communications for council business and councillor engagement. An appropriate course of action was agreed.

Cllr Firth left the meeting during this discussion at 20:16

- The clerk indicated that Owmbly PC were volunteering on the park in Sunday 21st July and asked that Normanby Councillors may support with this.
